How can I help?

In Our Tzedakah Box (or online)

Send gift cards to Houston-area Reform Synagogues

Reform congregations are collecting physical gift cards to distribute to those in their communities who face the greatest need. They request gift cards to stores such as Target, Walmart, Home Depot and Lowe's. We are partnering with Beth Israel in Houston in their relief efforts. You can send gift cards to Congregation Beth Israel, 5600 N. Braeswood Blvd., Houston, TX 77096, or leave them in our Tzedakah box.

Help provide programming and temporary housing for storm victims.

URJ Greene Family Camp, a Reform Jewish summer camp in Bruceville, TX, has partnered with the Evelyn Rubenstein Jewish Community Center of Houston and Congregation Emanu El to provide varying aspects of storm relief efforts. One of these efforts is Hurricane Harvey Houston Day Camp, which will provide local children with the opportunity to have fun with other kids while giving their parents the time and space to take care of their homes, cars, and other responsibilities. If you are able, please make a donation to support these special efforts through the URJ.

Donate to organizations providing on-the-ground relief

There are many organizations who are doing the hard work of supporting affected families and rebuilding, including:

- NECHAMA: A Jewish Response to Disaster
- Jewish Federations of North America (JFNA) Hurricane Harvey Relief Fund
- The Hurricane Harvey Relief Fund of the Greater Houston Community Foundation
